

Reflective Journal

Answer the questions below as a family to reflect on; how returning to school has gone, and what you hope for in the coming months.

What has the transition back to school been like?

What new things have we learnt or discovered since going back to school?

What can we do over the next few months to all help each other?

