

Suggested activities based on 'Charlie Cook's Favourite Book'

Reading survey

- Charlie Cook loves curling up in a cosy chair to read. What do you like about reading?
- Charlie describes many types of books and stories- joke books, annuals, fairy tales, ghost stories, books about pirates and aliens, factual books and even encyclopaedias. What types of books and stories do you like?
- Name one story book (Fiction) you like
  - List the characters in it
  - What is the book mostly about?
  - Say why you really like this book
- Name a Non-Fiction book you like
  - Write down some facts you learned from this book
  - Which do you prefer Fiction or Non-Fiction books?
  - Design a slogan to encourage children to enjoy books
- Stories can take us to different places in our heads. Draw a place a book you have read took you.

Literacy

Charlie Cook has many favourite books, of all the books he mentions what is your favourite?

Vocabulary: find out what these words mean,

- brook,
- indignant,
- encyclopaedia.

Talk about books you like. Write a short description of one of them.