

Barnardos

If I was in charge of Ireland's money

I'd make more houses to help people who have no home

I would make flying cars

I would give money to help parents mind their babies

I would build a soccer pitch in my back garden where everyone could come and play

I'd make schools better so kids can learn and have fun

